INFORMATION ABOUT RECOGNITION OF FOREIGN EDUCATION

Applicants who have completed their studies in other EU countries or non-EU countries (other than Slovenia) and who (in accordance with the Assessment and Recognition of Education Act in Slovenia) have been granted the right to continue their studies in an individual study programme in the process of recognizing foreign education, may also enrol in master's study programmes.

Candidate who has completed studies abroad proves fulfilment of the conditions for enrolment in the study programme by submitting an already obtained decision of recognition or by applying for obtaining a decision on the recognition of education obtained abroad.

The authenticity of degree certificates and transcripts will be verified by the issuer of the original document or the competent authority of the country of origin of the document by the higher education institution. If the higher education institution does not confirm the authenticity of the document, candidates will be asked to provide the original or legalised documents.

More information about the recognition procedure on the website: <https://emuni.si/recognition-of-foreign-education/>

IMPORTANT

For applicants with a foreign degree certificate, who do not have a decision on recognition of education yet, the application for enrolment is also considered as an application for the recognition of foreign education. Applicants must fill out the section in the application regarding the recognition of foreign education and submit all supporting documents stated in the Call for enrolment.

The authenticity of the diploma certificate will be checked at the issuer of the original document or at the competent authority of the country of origin of the document. If the Admissions Office is unable to confirm the authenticity of the document, the candidate will be asked to send the original document/s of completed education abroad, legalized according to regulations and country of origin.

The University Admissions Office may require the applicants to submit additional documents during the recognition process.

An official decision on recognition of foreign education will be issued and posted on the eVS portal before the admission or rejection of the application.

BRIDGING EXAMS PRIOR TO ENROLMENT

Graduates from unrelated study fields, enrolling in the first year of studies must complete additional exams stated (bridging program) in the section "Admission requirements" prior to enrolment in the study programme. Applicants are advised to submit the application for enrolment as soon as possible and apply for the bridging exam. Information about content of the bridging exams and exam dates will be published on the EMUNI website.

Applicants who need to complete prerequisite exams in order to fulfil the admission requirements for enrolment in the study programme should be aware that in case of limited enrolment in the first application period, candidates are selected among the applicants who have fulfilled all admission requirements on the day of the application deadline.

RECOGNITION OF KNOWLEDGE AND SKILLS

Applicants who have already completed courses with content from the bridging exams during a previous degree programme can apply for recognition of these courses. The application with the relevant evidence (transcript of records and course syllabi) must be submitted to EMUNI University by the application deadline.

Applicants may also apply for recognition of knowledge and skills acquired prior to enrolment through various forms of formal and/or informal education. To this end, they may submit an application to EMUNI University after enrolling in the degree programme. The application must be accompanied by a transcript of records, course syllabi and/or other documents proving the content, scope and complexity of the education.

More information about the procedure for recognition of knowledge and skills: <https://emuni.si/recognition-of-knowledge-and-skills>

TUITION AND FEES

Tuition fees and other study fees are determined in the Pricelist, accepted by the Managing Board of EMUNI University. The Pricelist is published on the University website.

All admitted candidates, regardless of nationality pay enrolment fee and tuition fee for master's study programmes at EMUNI.

After successful submission of the application, the applicant will receive a confirmation of successful submission to the email address provided in the enrolment application. If the applicant does not receive this confirmation, the application has not been submitted successfully.

In the application and admission procedures for the 2026/2027 academic year, applicants submit all supporting documents required for the application electronically via the eVŠ portal.

Applicants are required to check the e-mail address provided in the enrolment application and on the eVŠ web portal, as communication and any requests to complete the enrolment application will be made via this channel. Applicants must verify the validity of the e-mail address provided in the application.

Applicants for enrolment in Master's degree programmes at EMUNI University may submit a maximum of two (2) applications for enrolment in the degree programme in which they wish to enrol and for which they meet or will meet the admission requirements within the deadlines published with this call. Each complete submission of an electronic application in the eVŠ web portal is considered an application.

Applicants who submit an incomplete application for enrolment or application for recognition of education for the purpose of continuing education will be additionally informed individually per email or electronically via the eVŠ portal about the requirement and the deadline for supplementing the application. If the applicant did not submit all the requested documents by the application deadline the application will be rejected.

Online application process step by step:

- ⇒ first step: get and smsPASS or electronic identity, register as new user
- ⇒ second step: select language and citizenship,
- ⇒ third step: select the master's programmes, second cycle and Private higher education institution
- ⇒ fourth step: select Call for Enrolment of the EURO-MEDITERRANEAN UNIVERSITY
- ⇒ fifth step: enter personal data, permanent residence, and address for notifications,
- ⇒ sixth steps: write information about previous education,
- ⇒ seventh step: select desired study programme,
- ⇒ eighth step: upload relevant documents,
- ⇒ and lastly, review and submit the application electronically.

Important!

- After successful submission of the application, the applicant will receive a confirmation of successful submission to the email address provided in the enrolment application. If the applicant does not receive this confirmation, the application has not been submitted successfully.
- When a submitted document is reviewed by the Admission Office and it is accepted this will show in your application.
- If the document is not accepted, you will receive an email with further instructions how to comply with the requirements.

After the application deadline applicants receive either an admission letter and invitation for enrolment or a rejection letter on the eVŠ portal. Here are the steps in the admission procedure:

1. Submit application for enrolment and recognition of foreign education and supporting documents
2. Admission interview with applicant
3. Receive a decision on recognition of foreign education
4. Pass bridge exams if necessary
5. Assessment of admission requirements by Commission
6. Receive an admission letter if admission requirements are met
7. Receive invitation for enrolment
8. Submit enrolment form and supporting documents
9. Receive confirmation of enrolment and invitation letter for visa application

OFFICIAL NOTIFICATIONS

The University Admissions Office will send all official notifications, admissions, decisions, rejections, etc. concerning the application and enrolment to the applicant electronically on the eVS portal in accordance with Article 57 of the Higher Education Act.

The applicant will be notified by email of the new document deposited electronically on the portal.

When the document is delivered via the eVS portal, the applicant confirms receipt of the document electronically.

The date of the electronic confirmation of delivery is considered to be the date of delivery of the document.

If the document is not delivered or confirmed by the applicant within five days of receipt of the e-mail notification of the electronically deposited document, the document is considered to have been delivered after this period has expired.
