The application is submitted in due time, if it is submitted before or on the last day of the application deadline (proven by the date stamp in the submitted application form) through in the link – application for scholarship

The opening of the applications is not public and is carried out by the Trustee of the Fund. The opening is done at receiving the application in real time, no later than eight days (8) after the submission of an individual application.

The Trustee of the Fund, after reviewing of the application, will write to those candidates who have submitted incomplete applications asking them to make additions. The supplements must be submitted within five days (5) of the invitation. The Trustee of the Fund will reject applications that are not completed within the requested deadline. The Trustee of the Fund shall keep a record of the opening of applications and included candidates. The proposal for admission or rejection of the candidates is sent for deliberation to the Scholarship Fund Administrative Board. Upon completion of the procedure, the Trustee of the Fund will inform candidates and students about inclusion in the fund.

The awarded scholarship can only be used for the enrolment in a degree study programme at EMUNI.

A candidate cannot have the right of inclusion in the fund if he previously acquired the right to join the fund but did not fulfil the obligations and was therefore excluded from the fund, or if his scholarship agreement was terminated.
